McCandless Crossing to Welcome the Holiday Season with Lighting Ceremonies Christmas and Hanukkah Events will be Held on Town Green

Pittsburgh, PA (November 15, 2022) – Adventure Development, LLC, invites the Pittsburgh community to kick off the holiday season at McCandless Crossing with two signature events.

Celebrations will kick off with the annual Christmas Tree Lighting event on Monday, November 28, from 6 to 8 pm. The Town Green will be abuzz with the sights and sounds of the season with Santa's arrival as well as musical and dance performances.

Local singer and guitarist Elias Khouri will share live acoustic holiday music from 6 to 7 pm, and company dancers from Michele's Dance Center will perform on stage on the Town Green from 7 to 8 pm.

A menorah lighting ceremony will take place Sunday, December 18, at 6:30 pm on the McCandless Crossing Town Green (near the fountain, between Bonefish Grill and BJ's Restaurant & Brewhouse). Temple Ohav Shalom congregation members will lead the event to celebrate Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights.

New for 2022, McCandless Crossing will serve as a North Hills Community Outreach Kettle Campaign site. The annual campaign runs from November 25 until December 24.

AdVenture Development President Kevin Dougherty states, "The Christmas Tree and Menorah Lighting ceremonies are perfect opportunities to start the holiday season on a celebratory note. We look forward to hosting the Kettle Campaign bell ringers for the first time this year and helping to support struggling families in our own community who come to NHCO for assistance."
