FALL EVENTS AT OLD NORTH STATE FOOD HALL

Trick or treat, car show and Halloween karaoke are highlights

Selma, NC (October 24, 2023) – Old North State Food Hall is the place to be for several fall events this week.

Saturday, October 28, 7 to 10 pm – Halloween Karaoke at Longleaf Tavern features DJ David Charles Price, a costume contest and Halloween-themed music. $7 cover/bar minimum applies.

Sunday, October 29, 11 am to 4 pm – Southland Car Club hosts a classic car cruise-in at Old North State Food Hall in the front parking lot. Rain date is November 5.

Monday, October 30, 5 to 7 pm – Children in costume are invited to a family friendly Trick or Treat event at the food hall. Vendors will have treats to give away to trick or treaters.

Also, throughout the NFL season, Longleaf Tavern plays host to Pittsburgh Steelers fans on game days. Fans can watch all the games on the big screen and enter to win ticket and hotel packages for two upcoming games in Pittsburgh.

Old North State Food Hall General Manager Todd Pifer shared, “Our calendar of events is filling up now through the end of the year. Our goal is to offer activities for people of all ages along with food and beverage options to please everyone!”

ONSFH is open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, 7 am to 9 pm, every day except Tuesday. Longleaf Tavern opens at 11 am and closes at 10 pm on days the Food Hall is open. Old North State Food Hall also offers private rooms for meetings, office parties, dinner gatherings and other gatherings and celebrations.
